Anick & Associates Announces Rebrand, Say Hello to O'Leary & Anick

WAUWATOSA, WI (December 16, 2019) - Anick & Associates, an accounting firm dedicated to serving nonprofit agencies, announced it is rebranding the firm as O'Leary & Anick, unveiling a new logo and updated website.

With more than 35 years of serving the nonprofit community, Anick & Associates' mission has been to bring the best in accounting, management, and consulting to nonprofit organizations throughout the U.S. and across the globe.

"As Anick & Associates ushers in our new era as O'Leary & Anick, we are graced with the legacy that Jack and Linda Anick worked so hard to achieve over the years. A legacy of service. A legacy of a family culture. A legacy that is dedicated to advancing the work of the nonprofit community we serve," says President & CEO, Kevin O'Leary.

Inspired by its clients and driven by a commitment to accuracy and service, O'Leary & Anick is one of only a handful of firms in the nation who provides services solely to nonprofit organizations.

"Our name may be changing, but one thing that will never waiver is our exclusive focus on the nonprofit agencies we serve," O'Leary said.

Since its inception in 1981, O'Leary & Anick set out to free nonprofits from day-to-day accounting, administrative, and financial functions, allowing them to focus on who they serve and what they are truly meant to accomplish.
